FOREWORD

IN 1860 John Locke Scripps wrote his famous Campaign biography of Abraham Lincoln that was published simultaneously in Chicago and New York. Lincoln heartily approved of this biography, and it was read by thousands of voters. The home of the Scripps family was Rushville, Illinois, and they knew Lincoln as a fellow-citizen who occasionally came to Rushville. It is particularly pleasant to reflect, therefore, that John Scripps Little, a nephew of this John L. Scripps, friend of Lincoln, should continue the family tradition and gather one of the finest Lincoln collections that has ever been made. It is a fitting honor to Mr. Little that his treasures are now made available to admirers of Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. Little has been a most discriminating collector. His choices have been tempered with the instinctive sense that reveals the connoisseur. First, he has kept a sharp eye to condition; he has selected only the finest copies he could get. Whitney's "Life on the Circuit," for example, is immaculate in the original jacket, as if it had come from the publishers but yesterday. And Herndon's "Lincoln" is as clean as if it had never been opened. Fine condition characterizes the library throughout.

Second, he has felt instinctively the tremendous pull of "association" items, and his collection is replete with presentation copies and relevant autograph letters. Fortunately Mr. Little is an "old hand" at the game; he has gone through all the important Lincoln sales, and added to his library choice items from them all. Consequently, many of his books are pedigreed; they have valuable histories from the famous Hart, Burton, Lambert and McAleenan Collections. Most of the pamphlets were presented by the authors to Charles H. Hart and later acquired by Major Lambert.

Unfortunately Major Lambert's library was endangered by fire; so that a few of the pamphlets are partly damp-stained, but this merely guarantees their authenticity. Practically all of Major Lambert's pamphlets are finely bound in three-quarter green morocco, marbled boards, and except for the occasional damp-stains, in excellent condition. In each instance the original wrappers have been bound in; so that this fact has not been repeated throughout the catalogue. To aid in cataloguing, the abbreviation A.P.C. has been used for Autograph Presentation Copy, in addition to the usual A.L.S. for Autograph Letter Signed, T.L.S. for Typed Letter Signed and A.M.S.S. for Autograph Manuscript Signed.

This is one of the most comprehensive Lincoln collections offered for public sale since the disposal of the famous Lambert collection in 1914. And, what is more startling, it may be the last, since the two great private collections now in existence will probably go to public institutions. The dispersal of Mr. Little's library brings to light new bibliographical information and furnishes mature guidance to the whole range of Lincolniana. The new collector may be lead to significant material, and the experienced collector may be stirred with the joy of appreciating rare books and their associations.

The excessively rare Chicago imprint of which only a few copies are known to exist, together with the rare New York imprint which, according to a letter of Scripps' in the Introduction to the reprint of his biography in 1900, were issued simultaneously. Advertising matter on page 32 of first mentioned begins: "The Chicago Press and Tribune. Campaign of 1860." Laid in is A.N.S. by Lincoln: "Hon. J. R. Doolittle please call and see me this morning. A. Lincoln. March 24, 1864." Verso: "16. N. A. St. at Del. ave. & 1st St. E." Tipped in is A.L.S. by Scripps, 4to, 4 pages, to his sister, dated: "June 19th 1841." This is the third known biography of Lincoln; used for campaign purposes. The proof was read, corrected and authorized by Lincoln personally. When the advance sheets reached Lincoln, he is supposed to have summoned Mr. Scripps and said to him: "That paragraph wherein you state I read Plutarch's Lives was not true when you wrote it, but I want your book, even if it is nothing more than a campaign sketch, to be faithful to the facts, and in order that that statement might be literally true, I secured the book a few days ago and have just read it through." First edition. Superb copy of this great Lincoln rarity. Autograph letter signed, 8vo, 2 pages, to Geo. B. Ayres laid in: "No one now on earth knows how Abraham Lincoln looked before he became President better than I do. I was a young man in those early days; I admired Lincoln and believed in him. I slept with him, walked with him and saw him in all his moods and tempers . . . No one of his close friends ever liked the whiskers. Had he tried wearing them 'on the Circuit' we would not have tolerated it. All of the old set who were Lincoln's companions and may still live will concur with me in what I say concerning the wonderful fidelity of your picture. . . . When Herndon was getting up his 'Life of Lincoln' I sent him a copy from this same negative, and he chose this likeness as the best of all for his book . . ." Fish 1048. Vide No. 411.

Writes about a watch chain he had which Lincoln had owned for 20 years, making a drawing of same; also saying where Mr. Boyd could obtain some of the rails of the Lincoln cabin. Hanks, at the Chicago Convention, entered the Wigwam with one of the celebrated rails split by Lincoln, and started the furore which resulted in his nomination. Burton sale, 389.

472. HAY, JOHN. Lincoln's secretary. A.N.S. (1899); T.N.S. (1901); and one signature.

473. HERNDON, WILLIAM H. Lincoln's law partner. AUTOGRAPH RECORD BOOK SIGNED. "Corporations Private." Square 8vo, original calf; rubbed.

A. L. S. by H. E. Barker, dealer in Lincolniana laid in; May 16, 1916, 8vo, one page "Abraham Lincoln's law partner for twenty years, Wm. Herndon, opened up this little 'Records' book . . . and it was turned over to Gen'l Alfred Orendorff, his law partner from 1873 to 1877, when Herndon retired from active practise in 1877. Quite a number of books used by Lincoln and Herndon were thus acquired by Mr. Orendorff, and were afterwards purchased by me from the family, this vol. being among the number."

474. HERNDON, WILLIAM H. A.L.S. 4to, 4 full pages. Springfield, Ills., Feb. 18th, 1886. To "Friend Fonlen." Broken at centre fold, text unimpaired.

Magnificent letter on the fatalism of Lincoln: " . . . Mr. Lincoln believed that what was to be would be and no prayers of ours could arrest or reverse the decree . . . that the conditions made the man—does make the man . . . that general-universal and eternal laws governed both matter and mind . . . His calmness under bloody war was the result . . . Emmerson had the genius of the spiritual and ideal. Lincoln had the genius of the real and the practical. Emmerson lived high among the stars. Lincoln lived low among men. Emmerson dreamed, Lincoln acted. Emmerson was intuitional, Lincoln reflective . . . Both were liberals in religion and were great men."

475. HERNDON, WILLIAM H. A.L.S. 4to, 2pp., closely written. Springfield, Ills., Sept. 10, 1887. To "Friend Remsberg." ✚BRIEF ANALYSIS OF LINCOLN'S CHARACTER. A Letter to J. E. Remsberg from William H. Herndon. Privately printed, 1917. 8vo, 4 leaves. Limited to 50 copies, signed by Barker. Oakleaf 621. ✚A.L.S. by Barker 8vo, 1p. To Little, re Herndon's letter.

The original letter by Herndon and the pamphlet printed from it. Unusual comment on Lincoln's character and Speed's influence on him. In part: "Probably, except in his love scrapes, Lincoln never poured out his soul to any mortal creature at anytime and on no subject. He was the most secretive—reticent—shut-mouthed man that ever existed. You had to guess at the man after years of acquaintance . . . he loved principle, but moved ever just to suit his own ends; he was a trimmer among men . . . they were his tools and instruments; he was a cool man—an un-social one—an abstracted one . . ."

476. HERNDON, WILLIAM H. A. MS. S. "Mrs. Lincoln's Denial and What SHE Says." Springfield, Ills., Jan. 12th 1874. 12mo. 22 pages; in three-quarter morocco book. MSS. attributed to Herndon, on an interview with Mrs. Lincoln and the notes he took from her for his book.

477. HESSLER PHOTOGRAPH. Two A.L.S. to Mr. Ayres, regarding the Ayres reprint of the Hessler photograph.

John T. Hanks (Colvig amanuensis), 4to, 1p. June 4, 1902: "I unhesitatingly pronounce it the most lifelike and realistic picture of him I have ever seen." Jesse W. Weik, 4to, 2pp. Feb. 20, 1893. In part: "[Herndon] regarded it as the most literal and characteristic portrait of all. 'He's a little fixed up,' he said, referring to the unusual neatness of dress, 'but there is the peculiar curve of the lower lip, the lone mole on the right cheek and a pose of the head so essentially Lincolnian no other artist has ever caught it.'"

478. JOHNSON, ANDREW. Seventeenth President of U. S. D.S. Senate nomination. Folio, 1p. Executive Mansion; July 18, 1868.

479. JUSSERAND, JULES. French Ambassador to the U. S. ORIGINAL A. MS. S. "Brandywine Commemoration, Sept. 11, 1919 (sic)." 4to, 3pp. With T.L.S. Washington, Sept. 30, 1915.

480. LIEBER, FRANCIS. Scientist. A.L.S. 4to, 4pp. New York, Oct. 14, 1868. Re the significance of "e pluribus unum." ✚ A.L.S. 8vo, 3pp., mounted. N. Y. 1870. Re the enlisting of slaves in the war.

481. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. A.D.S. "Logan & Lincoln." Court order. Horatio M. Vandever vs. James Baker, regarding school lands. Folio, 1p. Circa 50 words and endorsement in Lincoln's hand. Filed 1844.

482. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. A.D.S. "Logan & Lincoln." Legal Document: "The Replication of Nathaniel Hay to the answer of Nicholas Bryan, etc." Folio, 1p., 13 lines and endorsement in Lincoln's hand. Filed May, 1847.

483. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. A.L.S. 4to, 1p. Washington, Feb. 4, 1848. To "Friend M'Callen."

Refers to the Mexican war: "There is now some possibility of peace; but should the war go on, I think volunteers, with the right of electing their own officers will be voted, but that no more regulars will be voted—Until Congress shall act, of course, nothing can be done towards getting your regiment into service—Whenever it shall act I shall be happy to assist you in any way I can. Yours truly A. Lincoln. P. S. Don't pay postage on letters to me—I am entitled to them free. A. L."

484. [LINCOLN, ABRAHAM] LEGAL DOCUMENT. Cross bill in Chancery, Vermillion County. Folio, 2pp. Oct. 22, 1850. Circa 50 lines in Lincoln's hand. John Van Gundy vs. Joseph Gundy.

485. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. LEGAL DOCUMENT SIGNED (twice). "Davis, Lincoln & Lamon." Folio, 1p. June 2, 1853. Circa 20 lines in Lincoln's hand. Endorsed on verso with large "L." "William Bachop ads. William M. Samm."

486. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. LEGAL DOCUMENT SIGNED. "Lincoln & Lamon." 8vo, 1p. May 30, 1854. Circa 10 lines in Lincoln's hand. "Joseph B. Lamon ads. Samuel Titus & George W. Titus, In Assumpsit."

487. [LINCOLN, ABRAHAM] LEGAL DOCUMENT. Mortgage between Peter R. Leonard and John Villars. Folio, 2pp. May 26, 1854. Circa 60 lines in Lincoln's hand.

488. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. A.L.S. 4to, 1p. Springfield, Sept. 7, 1854. To A. B. Moreau.

Characteristic campaign letter: "Stranger tho, I am, personally, being a brother in the faith, I venture to write you. Yates cannot come to your court next week . . . Hains will be with you, head up and tail up, for Nebraska—You must have someone to make an Anti-Nebraska speech—Palmer is the best . . . Jo. Gillespie, if you cannot get Palmer—and somebody anyhow . . . Yours etc. A. Lincoln."

489. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. LEGAL DOCUMENT SIGNED (twice). Folio, 1p. [Springfield, 1859] Legal plea and Notice; "Michael Courtney ads. Erastus Fortune." Circa 24 lines in Lincoln's hand.

JUSTICE AND FAIRNESS TO ALL

490. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. A.L.S. 12mo, 1p. Springfield, Ills., Aug. 14, 1860. To T. A. Cheney.

"I would cheerfully answer your questions in regard to the Fugitive Slave law, were it not that I consider it would be both imprudent, and contrary to the reasonable expectation of friends, for me to write, or speak anything upon doctrinal points now—Besides this, my published speeches contain nearly all I could willingly say—Justice, and fairness to all, is the utmost I have said, or will say.—Yours truly A. Lincoln."

491. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. A.L.S. 8vo, 1p. Executive Mansion, April 10, 1861. To the Hon. Sec. of Treasury. Facsimile laid in. "Mr. Wood thinks that possibly he can save you something in the matter of engraving Treasury Notes—Please give him an interview, & see what there is of it. Yours truly A. Lincoln."

492. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. D.S. Consular approval. Folio, 1p., parchment. Washington, Sept. 18, 1862. Countersigned by William H. Seward.

Signed on the day of the battle of Antietam-Chartsburg, that ended in a victory for the North. Lincoln, began to write the Emancipation Proclamation on this day.

493. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. D.S. Commission. Folio, 1p. vellum. Washington, March 17, 1863. Countersigned by Edwin M. Stanton.

494. [LINCOLN, ABRAHAM] AUTOGRAPH ENDORSEMENT. Verso of folio, 2pp. April 7, 1863. "Memorial & Petition on Judgeship of N. C. W. H. Doherty, Newburn, N. C."

495. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. D.S. Pardon for Joseph Shoemaker. 4to, 1p. Washington, April 20, 1863. Signed in full.

496. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. A.N.S. Card mounted. June 11, 1863.

"Col. R. W. Thompson is my friend, whom I would be glad to have obliged in any way not inconsistent with the public interest. A. Lincoln." Fine association item with the author of "Personal Recollections. Washington to Lincoln."

497. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. D.S. IN FULL. Pardon of George Hamilton. 4to, 1p. Feb. 23, 1864.

498. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. D.S. Consular appointment signed in full. Folio, 1p. June 13, 1864. Countersigned by William H. Seward.

499. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. A.D.S. "Lincoln and Herndon." Oblong 16mo, 1p. Legal plea, 5 lines.

500. [LINCOLN, ABRAHAM] ENVELOPE ADDRESSED. "Hon. Attorney General Present. From the President."

501. (LINCOLN) LINCOLN SCRAP BOOK. 4to, three-quarter roan; worn.

This album was formerly the property of Dr. J. B. English (with autograph), a personal friend of Lincoln. A. Index S. by J. E. Burton lists; six signatures of Lincoln; old style pictures of Lincoln and friends; Gettysburg speech, in mourning border with engraved portrait; Lincoln stamp envelope (scarce); A.L.S., 2pp., of Union soldier; photo of old mint at New Orleans; picture of J. W. Booth; hanging the four conspirators; etc.

502. (LINCOLN) Two Letters on the Origin of the Term, "Honest Abe." A.L.S. by R. W. Thompson. 4to, 2pp. Terre Haute, Dec. 1, 1894. ✚T.L.S. by Cullom. 4to, 2pp. Washington, D. C. Dec. 11, 1894.

Mr. Cullom claims that: "The first time I heard Mr. Lincoln called 'Honest Abe' was in the State Convention of Illinois in 1860." Mr. Thompson says: "... It was given him before he was elected to Congress or became President, ... it must have originated with the people of Illinois, among whom he was looked upon as a plain and unostentatious man, and who affixed this title to his name in consequence of the simplicity of his conduct and plainness of dress and manner."

503. (LINCOLN) Two testimonials from citizens of Iowa, recommending appointments. Containing autographs of S. F. Smith, J. W. Rankin, J. W. Thompson, etc.

504. LINCOLN, MRS. ABRAHAM. A.L.S. 8vo, 1p. Executive Mansion, Feb. 26, 1864. To Messrs. Clement, Heerdt & Co., N. Y.

Copy for a telegram: "A telegram was sent you in reference to a basket of champagne. Please send a basket of the kind requested, also another one, of the choicest quality you have in store. Mrs. Lincoln." Broken at fold, bottom torn off, text unimpaired.

505. LINCOLN, MRS. ABRAHAM. A.L.S. 8vo, 1p. Dec. 24th, [1864]. Carte-de-visite photograph laid in.

Interesting letter to W. P. Fessenden, Sect'y of the Treasury: "Sir, The President has fully endorsed the recommendation of Mr. G. Gumpert for the appointment as collector or purchasing agent for Pensacola ... You would oblige me very much by giving this appointment ... I would like to know what prospects he has ... Resp. Mrs. L."

506. LINCOLN, ROBERT TODD. Lincoln's son. A Collection of an A.L.S. (1880); T.L.S. (1887); two D.S. (1884); and three cut signatures.

507. LITERARY AUTOGRAPHS. A Collection of fourteen A.L.S. by I. Bachellor, J. Benton, R. Blanchard, G. H. Boker, M. A. Livermore, W. D. Howells, A. K. McClure, J. W. Howe, J. R. Gilmore, E. Eggleston, G. T. Curtis and E. S. Brooks. Also some original envelopes and cut signatures.

508. McCULLOCH, HUGH. Lincoln's Secretary of the Treasury. A.L.S., 1865 re character of Mr. Conness; Autographed photograph; two D.S., Treasury Dept. stationery; one signature.

509. MARKENS, ISAAC. Lincoln collector. Two A.L.S. 4to, 1p. Jan. 23, 1908. And 4to, 2pp. Jan. 25, 1908. To Major Lambert.

Fine long letter discussing detailed differences in the various issues of the Ford Theatre playbills on the night of the assassination.

510. MASTERS, EDGAR LEE. American poet. A. POEM S. Last 7 lines of "Ann Rutledge" from "Spoon River Anthology." 12mo, 1p. March 8th, 1916.

*"I am Ann Rutledge
Who lie beneath these weeds
Beloved in life of Abraham Lincoln
Wedded to him not through union
But through separation.
Bloom forever, O Republic,
From the dust of my bosom!"*

511. NEALY, MARY E. A. MS. POEM S. "Veritas Vincit." Folio, 2pp. Washington, D. C., no date. 4 stanzas of 8 lines each. "Written after the death of Lincoln."

512. NEELY, WINFIELD SCOTT. A. MS. S. "Reminiscences of Eighteen Months Sojourn in Confederate Prisons." Folio, 88pp.; edges frayed. Highly interesting and presumably unpublished manuscript.

513. SERMON. A. MS. Sermon on the Death of Lincoln. By a prominent clergyman. 4to, 8pp. From the famous G. H. Moore collection.

514. SEWARD, WILLIAM H. Lincoln's Secretary of State. A.L.S. 4to, 1p. Dec. 22, 1843. On author's copyright. ✚A.L.S. 8vo, 1p. Nov. 8, 1852. Predicting: . . . that the Whig party will cease to be after Nov. 2. ✚D.S. 4to, 1p. 1865. ✚ENVELOPE S. Together four pieces.

515. SHIELDS, GEN. JAMES. 'Duellist.' THREE A.L.S. Two 4to, 1p. and one 8vo, 3pp. Washington, 1850, 1853 and 1878. Also cut signature, two engraved portraits and clippings.

516. SMITH, GREEN CLAY. ORIGINAL A. MS. S. "Lincoln and the Rebel's Boots." 4to, 4pp. Frankfort, Ky. Also printed copy laid in.

517. SMITH, S. FRANCIS. American poet. A. MS. S. "My Country 'Tis of Thee." 4to, 1p. 4 stanzas of 7 lines each. ✚A.L.S. 8vo, 1p. 1889. In reply to an autograph seeker.

518. STEPHENS, ALEXANDER H. Vice-president of Confederacy. A.L.S. 8vo, 4pp. Crawfordville, Ga., June 10, 1871. To Hon. James Burke (?). With autographed card. Fine long letter on usurpation of powers by Congress in reconstruction measures.

519. STOWE, HARRIET B. American novelist. A.L.S. 8vo, 4pp. No place or date. To Rev. Henry F. Allen. Fine personal letter. Also cut signature.

THE ORIGINAL OFFICIAL MS. REPORT OF LINCOLN'S ASSASSINATION, DEATH AND AUTOPSY

520. TAFT, DR. CHARLES SABIN. ORIGINAL A. MS. S. "Abraham Lincoln's Last Hours, The Note Book of an Army Surgeon present at the Assassination, Death and Autopsy." 4to, 16pp. With typescript and affidavit, signed by Taft's son, authenticating the MS. and copy.

The account begins: "The notes from which this article is written were made the day succeeding Mr. Lincoln's death, and immediately after the official examination of the body. They were made by direction of Secretary Stanton for the purpose of preserving an official account of the circumstances attending the assassination, in connection with the medical aspects of the case." Dr. Sabin describes the assassination in detail, having been an eye witness.

521. TARBELL, IDA M. Lincoln's biographer. Two T. MS. S. ["Introduction to Tracy's Collected Letters"] 4to, 6pp. "Memo of Talk with Gilbert Tracy, April 4, 1916." 4to, 4pp. ✦ T.L.S. 4to, 1p. New York, Dec. 10, 1917. To Frank Bruce. Together three pieces.

Interesting collection of related material, inscribed for Mr. Little. Reads, in part: "I have the memo of my first talk with Mr. Tracy and my impressions of the first reading of [the] letters . . . From this memo I finally dictated the introduction, practically as it stands."

522. THOMPSON, MAURICE. American poet. Two A. MS. S. "To the South." 8vo, 4pp. Verse on Freedom. 8vo, 1p., 9 lines. ✦ Two A.L.S. 16mo, 2pp. 1891. And 8vo, 3pp. 1892. News clippings and prints laid in.

Superb poem on the South, written with intense feeling and fervor. The letter to Mr. Stoddart, 1892, refers to his stories of rural life in Indiana: "Its romance is the romance of the crude, isolated and dreary existence of the farming people."

523. TRUMBULL, LYMAN AND YATES, RICHARD. A.L.S. by Trumbull. 8vo, 2pp. Alton, Ills. Nov. 8, 1856. With cabinet photograph signed. ✦ Two carte-de-visite photographs of Yates autographed, and cut signature. Together five pieces.

Very fine Trumbull letter to W. P. Fessenden, describing the Buchanan campaign of 1856; mentioning Catton, Fillmore, and ". . . we have routed the little Giant."

524. WALLACE, JOSEPH. A. MS. S. "Abraham Lincoln. A Study of His Style as a Writer and Speaker." 8vo, 21 pages. Springfield, Ill., June 1900. Tall 8vo, full black morocco, each page mounted. Unpublished MS. by the author of a "Life of Col. Baker" and a "History of Illinois and Louisiana under French Rule." A.L.S. by H. E. Barker laid in.

525. WASHBURNE, E. B. ABRAHAM LINCOLN, His Personal History and Public Record. [Washington, 1860] 8vo, 4 leaves. Fish 1020. ♣THREE A.L.S. 1868, 1869, 1881.

526. WEIK, JESSE W. Lincoln's biographer. Two A.L.S. 4to, 2pp. Greencastle, Ind. March 30, 1895; and 4to, 1p. Oct. 18, 1896. Both to Maj. Lambert.

Two fine letters referring to a manuscript Weik had in preparation, "The Boyhood and Early Manhood of Lincoln . . . Lincoln used to say that a good many persons disapproved of dirty stories but he always noticed that no man ever left a room while one was being told . . ."

527. WELLES, GIDEON. Lincoln's Secretary of the Navy. THREE A.L.S. Two 4to, 1p. and one 8vo, 2pp. Washington 1863, 1864. Two cut signatures and engraved portrait laid in. Together six pieces.

528. WHITE, HORACE. Editor of The Chicago Tribune. FIVE A.L.S. 8vo, 7pp., 1865; 3pp., 1868 and 5pp. 1871 to Mr. Fessenden; 1p., 1891 to Hawley and 2pp., 1908 to J. S. Little.

529. WHITMAN, WALT. American poet. A. MS. Notes for his Scenes in War Hospitals. 4" x 10", circa 28 lines.

530. [WHITNEY, HENRY C.] Lincoln's law partner. TYPED MANUSCRIPT. "The 'Lost Speech.' (Unabridged)" 4to, 16pp. on Whitney's law office stationery.

The famous campaign speech delivered in Bloomington, May 29, 1856, which held the audience so spellbound on the subject of slavery in Nebraska, that no one copied it down. This is the text as Whitney recalled it, probably the nearest to the original available.

531. WOOD, FERNANDO. Copperhead politician. A.L.S. 4to, 3pp. Auburn, 1843. To Gov. W. H. Seward "Private." A.N.S., 2 cut signatures, engraving, and signature of C. L. Vallandigham. Together six pieces.

How to Bid by Mail

ATTENTION: Out-of-town buyers. Whether or not you are able to attend our sales in person we shall always be glad to execute your bids for you, purchasing at the lowest possible price in competition with the floor bidding. We regard your instructions as final and will bid in any manner you advise.

In order to bid on a lot in this catalogue read the descriptions carefully. Decide how much you are willing to pay for the lot. Put down on the bid sheet enclosed in this catalogue the price at which you expect to get the lot. Be sure to specify the maximum price you are willing to pay as we will not exceed your maximum, except, possibly, in the case of a tie between your bid and a bid from the floor when it may be necessary to exceed your bid 50c or $1.00 for you to break the tie.

Do not hesitate to bid whatever you like because of uncertainty as to the value of the material you desire. It is impossible to appraise rarities with any estimates that approach a nicety; and it is impossible to foretell what even important books will bring at public sales. Therefore we would advise you to send your bid according to your willingness to pay for a particular lot. All bids, whether for $1.00 or $1000.00, receive the same careful attention.

During the auction sales Mr. Meine himself handles all mail bids in competition with the bidding on the floor. If you have any special instructions which you would like to have Mr. Meine execute, he would be only too glad to do so. He devotes his entire time at the sale to seeing that out-of-town bids are properly executed.

Selling prices on lots lost by bidders will be reported free of charge if a self-addressed envelope is enclosed. We cannot, however, send out prices on lots which were not bid on. For this latter purpose we maintain a priced catalogue service of $1.00 per session. Bidders who have not established credit with us must furnish adequate Chicago references or send an advance deposit of 25% of the amount bid. This will be credited to your account and any balance remaining will be refunded after the sale.

FOREWORD

IN 1860 John Locke Scripps wrote his famous Campaign biography of Abraham Lincoln that was published simultaneously in Chicago and New York. Lincoln heartily approved of this biography, and it was read by thousands of voters. The home of the Scripps family was Rushville, Illinois, and they knew Lincoln as a fellow-citizen who occasionally came to Rushville. It is particularly pleasant to reflect, therefore, that John Scripps Little, a nephew of this John L. Scripps, friend of Lincoln, should continue the family tradition and gather one of the finest Lincoln collections that has ever been made. It is a fitting honor to Mr. Little that his treasures are now made available to admirers of Abraham Lincoln.

Mr. Little has been a most discriminating collector. His choices have been tempered with the instinctive sense that reveals the connoisseur. First, he has kept a sharp eye to condition; he has selected only the finest copies he could get. Whitney's "Life on the Circuit," for example, is immaculate in the original jacket, as if it had come from the publishers but yesterday. And Herndon's "Lincoln" is as clean as if it had never been opened. Fine condition characterizes the library throughout.

Second, he has felt instinctively the tremendous pull of "association" items, and his collection is replete with presentation copies and relevant autograph letters. Fortunately Mr. Little is an "old hand" at the game; he has gone through all the important Lincoln sales, and added to his library choice items from them all. Consequently, many of his books are pedigreed; they have valuable histories from the famous Hart, Burton, Lambert and McAleenan Collections. Most of the pamphlets were presented by the authors to Charles H. Hart and later acquired by Major Lambert.

Unfortunately Major Lambert's library was endangered by fire; so that a few of the pamphlets are partly damp-stained, but this merely guarantees their authenticity. Practically all of Major Lambert's pamphlets are finely bound in three-quarter green morocco, marbled boards, and except for the occasional damp-stains, in excellent condition. In each instance the original wrappers have been bound in; so that this fact has not been repeated throughout the catalogue. To aid in cataloguing, the abbreviation A.P.C. has been used for Autograph Presentation Copy, in addition to the usual A.L.S. for Autograph Letter Signed, T.L.S. for Typed Letter Signed and A.M.S.S. for Autograph Manuscript Signed.

This is one of the most comprehensive Lincoln collections offered for public sale since the disposal of the famous Lambert collection in 1914. And, what is more startling, it may be the last, since the two great private collections now in existence will probably go to public institutions. The dispersal of Mr. Little's library brings to light new bibliographical information and furnishes mature guidance to the whole range of Lincolnia. The new collector may be lead to significant material, and the experienced collector may be stirred with the joy of appreciating rare books and their associations.

First edition. The excessively rare Chicago imprint of which only a few copies are known to exist, together with the rare New York imprint which, according to a letter of Scripps' in the Introduction to the reprint of his biography in 1900, were issued simultaneously. Advertising matter on page 32 of first mentioned begins: "The Chicago Press and Tribune. Campaign of 1860." Laid in is A.N.S. by Lincoln: "Hon. J. R. Doolittle please call and see me this morning. A. Lincoln. March 24, 1864." Verso: "16. N. A. St. at Del. ave. & 1st St. E." Tipped in is A.L.S. by Scripps, 4to, 4 pages, to his sister, dated: "June 19th 1841." This is the third known biography of Lincoln; used for campaign purposes. The proof was read, corrected and authorized by Lincoln personally. When the advance sheets reached Lincoln, he is supposed to have summoned Mr. Scripps and said to him: "That paragraph wherein you state I read Plutarch's Lives was not true when you wrote it, but I want your book, even if it is nothing more than a campaign sketch, to be faithful to the facts, and in order that that statement might be literally true, I secured the book a few days ago and have just read it through." First edition. Superb copy of this great Lincoln rarity. Autograph letter signed, 8vo, 2 pages, to Geo. B. Ayres laid in: "No one now on earth knows how Abraham Lincoln looked before he became President better than I do. I was a young man in those early days; I admired Lincoln and believed in him. I slept with him, walked with him and saw him in all his moods and tempers . . . No one of his close friends ever liked the whiskers. Had he tried wearing them 'on the Circuit' we would not have tolerated it. All of the old set who were Lincoln's companions and may still live will concur with me in what I say concerning the wonderful fidelity of your picture. . . . When Herndon was getting up his 'Life of Lincoln' I sent him a copy from this same negative, and he chose this likeness as the best of all for his book . . ." Fish 1048. Vide No. 411.

Writes about a watch chain he had which Lincoln had owned for 20 years, making a drawing of same; also saying where Mr. Boyd could obtain some of the rails of the Lincoln cabin. Hanks, at the Chicago Convention, entered the Wigwam with one of the celebrated rails split by Lincoln, and started the furore which resulted in his nomination. Burton sale, 389.

472. HAY, JOHN. Lincoln's secretary. A.N.S. (1899); T.N.S. (1901); and one signature.

473. HERNDON, WILLIAM H. Lincoln's law partner. AUTOGRAPH RECORD BOOK SIGNED. "Corporations Private." Square 8vo, original calf; rubbed.

A. L. S. by H. E. Barker, dealer in Lincolniana laid in; May 16, 1916, 8vo, one page "Abraham Lincoln's law partner for twenty years, Wm. Herndon, opened up this little 'Records' book . . . and it was turned over to Gen'l Alfred Orendorff, his law partner from 1873 to 1877, when Herndon retired from active practise in 1877. Quite a number of books used by Lincoln and Herndon were thus acquired by Mr. Orendorff, and were afterwards purchased by me from the family, this vol. being among the number."

474. HERNDON, WILLIAM H. A.L.S. 4to, 4 full pages. Springfield, Ills., Feb. 18th, 1886. To "Friend Fonlen." Broken at centre fold, text unimpaired.

Magnificent letter on the fatalism of Lincoln: " . . . Mr. Lincoln believed that what was to be would be and no prayers of ours could arrest or reverse the decree . . . that the conditions made the man—does make the man . . . that general-universal and eternal laws governed both matter and mind . . . His calmness under bloody war was the result . . . Emmerson had the genius of the spiritual and ideal. Lincoln had the genius of the real and the practical. Emmerson lived high among the stars. Lincoln lived low among men. Emmerson dreamed, Lincoln acted. Emmerson was intuitional, Lincoln reflective . . . Both were liberals in religion and were great men."

475. HERNDON, WILLIAM H. A.L.S. 4to, 2pp., closely written. Springfield, Ills., Sept. 10, 1887. To "Friend Rensberg." ✚BRIEF ANALYSIS OF LINCOLN'S CHARACTER. A Letter to J. E. Rensberg from William H. Herndon. Privately printed, 1917. 8vo, 4 leaves. Limited to 50 copies, signed by Barker. Oakleaf 621. ✚A.L.S. by Barker 8vo, 1p. To Little, re Herndon's letter.

The original letter by Herndon and the pamphlet printed from it. Unusual comment on Lincoln's character and Speed's influence on him. In part: "Probably, except in his love scrapes, Lincoln never poured out his soul to any mortal creature at anytime and on no subject. He was the most secretive—reticent—shut-mouthed man that ever existed. You had to guess at the man after years of acquaintance . . . he loved principle, but moved ever just to suit his own ends; he was a trimmer among men . . . they were his tools and instruments; he was a cool man—an un-social one—an abstracted one . . ."

476. HERNDON, WILLIAM H. A. MS. S. "Mrs. Lincoln's Denial and What SHE Says." Springfield, Ills., Jan. 12th 1874. 12mo. 22 pages; in three-quarter morocco book. MSS. attributed to Herndon, on an interview with Mrs. Lincoln and the notes he took from her for his book.

477. HESSLER PHOTOGRAPH. Two A.L.S. to Mr. Ayres, regarding the Ayres reprint of the Hessler photograph.

John T. Hanks (Colvig amanuensis), 4to, 1p. June 4, 1902: "I unhesitatingly pronounce it the most lifelike and realistic picture of him I have ever seen." Jesse W. Weik, 4to, 2pp. Feb. 20, 1893. In part: "[Herndon] regarded it as the most literal and characteristic portrait of all. 'He's a little fixed up,' he said, referring to the unusual neatness of dress, 'but there is the peculiar curve of the lower lip, the lone mole on the right cheek and a pose of the head so essentially Lincolnian no other artist has ever caught it.'"

478. JOHNSON, ANDREW. Seventeenth President of U. S. D.S. Senate nomination. Folio, 1p. Executive Mansion; July 18, 1868.

479. JUSSEERAND, JULES. French Ambassador to the U. S. ORIGINAL A. MS. S. "Brandywine Commemoration, Sept. 11, 1919 (sic)." 4to, 3pp. With T.L.S. Washington, Sept. 30, 1915.

488. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. A.L.S. 4to, 1p. Springfield, Sept. 7, 1854. To A. B. Moreau.

Characteristic campaign letter: "Stranger tho, I am, personally, being a brother in the faith, I venture to write you. Yates cannot come to your court next week . . . Hains will be with you, head up and tail up, for Nebraska—You must have someone to make an Anti-Nebraska speech—Palmer is the best . . . Jo. Gillespie, if you cannot get Palmer—and somebody anyhow . . . Yours etc. A. Lincoln."

489. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. LEGAL DOCUMENT SIGNED (twice). Folio, 1p. [Springfield, 1859] Legal plea and Notice; "Michael Courtney ads. Erastus Fortune." Circa 24 lines in Lincoln's hand.

JUSTICE AND FAIRNESS TO ALL

490. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. A.L.S. 12mo, 1p. Springfield, Ills., Aug. 14, 1860. To T. A. Cheney.

"I would cheerfully answer your questions in regard to the Fugitive Slave law, were it not that I consider it would be both imprudent, and contrary to the reasonable expectation of friends, for me to write, or speak anything upon doctrinal points now—Besides this, my published speeches contain nearly all I could willingly say—Justice, and fairness to all, is the utmost I have said, or will say.—Yours truly A. Lincoln."

491. LINCOLN, ABRAHAM. A.L.S. 8vo, 1p. Executive Mansion, April 10, 1861. To the Hon. Sec. of Treasury. Facsimile laid in. *"Mr. Wood thinks that possibly he can save you something in the matter of engraving Treasury Notes—Please give him an interview, & see what there is of it. Yours truly A. Mr. Cullom claims that: "The first time I heard Mr. Lincoln called 'Honest Abe' was in the State Convention of Illinois in 1860." Mr. Thompson says: "... It was given him before he was elected to Congress or became President, ... it must have originated with the people of Illinois, among whom he was looked upon as a plain and unostentatious man, and who affixed this title to his name in consequence of the simplicity of his conduct and plainness of dress and manner."

503. (LINCOLN) Two testimonials from citizens of Iowa, recommending appointments. Containing autographs of S. F. Smith, J. W. Rankin, J. W. Thompson, etc.

504. LINCOLN, MRS. ABRAHAM. A.L.S. 8vo, 1p. Executive Mansion, Feb. 26, 1864. To Messrs. Clement, Heerd & Co., N. Y.

Copy for a telegram: "A telegram was sent you in reference to a basket of champagne. Please send a basket of the kind requested, also another one, of the choicest quality you have in store. Mrs. Lincoln." Broken at fold, bottom torn off, text unimpaired.

505. LINCOLN, MRS. ABRAHAM. A.L.S. 8vo, 1p. Dec. 24th, [1864]. Carte-de-visite photograph laid in.

Interesting letter to W. P. Fessenden, Sect'y of the Treasury: "Sir, The President has fully endorsed the recommendation of Mr. G. Gumpert for the appointment as collector or purchasing agent for Pensacola ... You would oblige me very much by giving this appointment ... I would like to know what prospects he has ... Resp. Mrs. L."

506. LINCOLN, ROBERT TODD. Lincoln's son. A Collection of an A.L.S. (1880); T.L.S. (1887); two D.S. (1884); and three cut signatures.

507. LITERARY AUTOGRAPHS. A Collection of fourteen A.L.S. by I. Bachellor, J. Benton, R. Blanchard, G. H. Boker, M. A. Livermore, W. D. Howells, A. K. McClure, J. W. Howe, J. R. Gilmore, E. Eggleston, G. T. Curtis and E. S. Brooks. Also some original envelopes and cut signatures.

508. McCULLOCH, HUGH. Lincoln's Secretary of the Treasury. A.L.S., 1865 re character of Mr. Conness; Autographed photograph; two D.S., Treasury Dept. stationery; one signature.

509. MARKENS, ISAAC. Lincoln collector. Two A.L.S. 4to, 1p. Jan. 23, 1908. And 4to, 2pp. Jan. 25, 1908. To Major Lambert.

Fine long letter discussing detailed differences in the various issues of the Ford Theatre playbills on the night of the assassination.

510. MASTERS, EDGAR LEE. American poet. A. POEM S. Last 7 lines of "Ann Rutledge" from "Spoon River Anthology." 12mo, 1p. March 8th, 1916.

*"I am Ann Rutledge
Who lie beneath these weeds
Beloved in life of Abraham Lincoln
Wedded to him not through union
But through separation.
Bloom forever, O Republic,
From the dust of my bosom!"*

511. NEALY, MARY E. A. MS. POEM S. "Veritas Vincit." Folio, 2pp. Washington, D. C., no date. 4 stanzas of 8 lines each. "Written after the death of Lincoln."

512. NEELY, WINFIELD SCOTT. A. MS. S. "Reminiscences of Eighteen Months Sojourn in Confederate Prisons." Folio, 88pp.; edges frayed. Highly interesting and presumably unpublished manuscript.

513. SERMON. A. MS. Sermon on the Death of Lincoln. By a prominent clergyman. 4to, 8pp. From the famous G. H. Moore collection.

514. SEWARD, WILLIAM H. Lincoln's Secretary of State. A.L.S. 4to, 1p. Dec. 22, 1843. On author's copyright. ✚A.L.S. 8vo, 1p. Nov. 8, 1852. Predicting: . . . that the Whig party will cease to be after Nov. 2. ✚D.S. 4to, 1p. 1865. ✚ENVELOPE S. Together four pieces.

515. SHIELDS, GEN. JAMES. 'Duellist.' THREE A.L.S. Two 4to, 1p. and one 8vo, 3pp. Washington, 1850, 1853 and 1878. Also cut signature, two engraved portraits and clippings.

516. SMITH, GREEN CLAY. ORIGINAL A. MS. S. "Lincoln and the Rebel's Boots." 4to, 4pp. Frankfort, Ky. Also printed copy laid in.

517. SMITH, S. FRANCIS. American poet. A. MS. S. "My Country 'Tis of Thee." 4to, 1p. 4 stanzas of 7 lines each. ✚A.L.S. 8vo, 1p. 1889. In reply to an autograph seeker.

518. STEPHENS, ALEXANDER H. Vice-president of Confederacy. A.L.S. 8vo, 4pp. Crawfordville, Ga., June 10, 1871. To Hon. James Burke (?). With autographed card. Fine long letter on usurpation of powers by Congress in reconstruction measures.

519. STOWE, HARRIET B. American novelist. A.L.S. 8vo, 4pp. No place or date. To Rev. Henry F. Allen. Fine personal letter. Also cut signature.

THE ORIGINAL OFFICIAL MS. REPORT OF LINCOLN'S ASSASSINATION, DEATH AND AUTOPSY

520. TAFT, DR. CHARLES SABIN. ORIGINAL A. MS. S. "Abraham Lincoln's Last Hours, The Note Book of an Army Surgeon present at the Assassination, Death and Autopsy." 4to, 16pp. With typescript and affidavit, signed by Taft's son, authenticating the MS. and copy.

The account begins: "The notes from which this article is written were made the day succeeding Mr. Lincoln's death, and immediately after the official examination of the body. They were made by direction of Secretary Stanton for the purpose of preserving an official account of the circumstances attending the assassination, in connection with the medical aspects of the case." Dr. Sabin describes the assassination in detail, having been an eye witness.

521. TARBELL, IDA M. Lincoln's biographer. Two T. MS. S. ["Introduction to Tracy's Collected Letters"] 4to, 6pp. "Memo of Talk with Gilbert Tracy, April 4, 1916." 4to, 4pp. ✚ T.L.S. 4to, 1p. New York, Dec. 10, 1917. To Frank Bruce. Together three pieces.

Interesting collection of related material, inscribed for Mr. Little. Reads, in part: "I have the memo of my first talk with Mr. Tracy and my impressions of the first reading of [the] letters . . . From this memo I finally dictated the introduction, practically as it stands."

522. THOMPSON, MAURICE. American poet. Two A. MS. S. "To the South." 8vo, 4pp. Verse on Freedom. 8vo, 1p., 9 lines. ✚ Two A.L.S. 16mo, 2pp. 1891. And 8vo, 3pp. 1892. News clippings and prints laid in.

Superb poem on the South, written with intense feeling and fervor. The letter to Mr. Stoddart, 1892, refers to his stories of rural life in Indiana: "Its romance is the romance of the crude, isolated and dreary existence of the farming people."

523. TRUMBULL, LYMAN AND YATES, RICHARD. A.L.S. by Trumbull. 8vo, 2pp. Alton, Ills. Nov. 8, 1856. With cabinet photograph signed. ✚ Two carte-de-visite photographs of Yates autographed, and cut signature. Together five pieces.

Very fine Trumbull letter to W. P. Fessenden, describing the Buchanan campaign of 1856; mentioning Catton, Fillmore, and ". . . we have routed the little Giant."

524. WALLACE, JOSEPH. A. MS. S. "Abraham Lincoln. A Study of His Style as a Writer and Speaker." 8vo, 21 pages. Springfield, Ill., June 1900. Tall 8vo, full black morocco, each page mounted. Unpublished MS. by the author of a "Life of Col. Baker" and a "History of Illinois and Louisiana under French Rule." A.L.S. by H. E. Barker laid in.

525. WASHBURNE, E. B. ABRAHAM LINCOLN, His Personal History and Public Record. [Washington, 1860] 8vo, 4 leaves. Fish 1020. ✠THREE A.L.S. 1868, 1869, 1881.

526. WEIK, JESSE W. Lincoln's biographer. Two A.L.S. 4to, 2pp. Greencastle, Ind. March 30, 1895; and 4to, 1p. Oct. 18, 1896. Both to Maj. Lambert.

Two fine letters referring to a manuscript Weik had in preparation, "The Boyhood and Early Manhood of Lincoln . . . Lincoln used to say that a good many persons disapproved of dirty stories but he always noticed that no man ever left a room while one was being told . . ."

527. WELLES, GIDEON. Lincoln's Secretary of the Navy. THREE A.L.S. Two 4to, 1p. and one 8vo, 2pp. Washington 1863, 1864. Two cut signatures and engraved portrait laid in. Together six pieces.

528. WHITE, HORACE. Editor of The Chicago Tribune. FIVE A.L.S. 8vo, 7pp., 1865; 3pp., 1868 and 5pp. 1871 to Mr. Fessenden; 1p., 1891 to Hawley and 2pp., 1908 to J. S. Little.

529. WHITMAN, WALT. American poet. A. MS. Notes for his Scenes in War Hospitals. 4" x 10", circa 28 lines.

530. [WHITNEY, HENRY C.] Lincoln's law partner. TYPED MANUSCRIPT. "The 'Lost Speech.' (Unabridged)" 4to, 16pp. on Whitney's law office stationery.

The famous campaign speech delivered in Bloomington, May 29, 1856, which held the audience so spellbound on the subject of slavery in Nebraska, that no one copied it down. This is the text as Whitney recalled it, probably the nearest to the original available.

How to Bid by Mail

ATENTION: Out-of-town buyers. Whether or not you are able to attend our sales in person we shall always be glad to execute your bids for you, purchasing at the lowest possible price in competition with the floor bidding. We regard your instructions as final and will bid in any manner you advise.

In order to bid on a lot in this catalogue read the descriptions carefully. Decide how much you are willing to pay for the lot. Put down on the bid sheet enclosed in this catalogue the price at which you expect to get the lot. Be sure to specify the maximum price you are willing to pay as we will not exceed your maximum, except, possibly, in the case of a tie between your bid and a bid from the floor when it may be necessary to exceed your bid 50c or $1.00 for you to break the tie.

Do not hesitate to bid whatever you like because of uncertainty as to the value of the material you desire. It is impossible to appraise rarities with any estimates that approach a nicety; and it is impossible to foretell what even important books will bring at public sales. Therefore we would advise you to send your bid according to your willingness to pay for a particular lot. All bids, whether for $1.00 or $1000.00, receive the same careful attention.

During the auction sales Mr. Meine himself handles all mail bids in competition with the bidding on the floor. If you have any special instructions which you would like to have Mr. Meine execute, he would be only too glad to do so. He devotes his entire time at the sale to seeing that out-of-town bids are properly executed.

Selling prices on lots lost by bidders will be reported free of charge if a self-addressed envelope is enclosed. We cannot, however, send out prices on lots which were not bid on. For this latter purpose we maintain a priced catalogue service of $1.00 per session. Bidders who have not established credit with us must furnish adequate Chicago references or send an advance deposit of 25% of the amount bid. This will be credited to your account and any balance remaining will be refunded after the sale.
